

Trauma Sensitive Schools Workgroup

August 5, 2020
4:00pm-5:30pm
Virtually over Zoom

Rebecca Liemkuehler opened meeting at 4:03pm

- Welcomed group, introduced self, Laura Wiggins, Brad Snyder, and Angie Geren
- Announced that Az Department of Education released standards:
azed.gov/standards-practices/standards-and-competencies
- Presented on online meditation from Annaka Harris

Angie Geren, Project Director of AZ ACEs Consortium:

- Introduced azaces.org website and Trauma Sensitive Schools Workgroup page
- Rebecca asked group to send suggestions on resources

Melanie Mitros, Vitalyst Health:

- Explained who they are and grants they focus on
- Looking for schools that are implementing trauma informed practices and what that looks like
- Convening partners- how can all partners come together in a statewide movement
- Vitalyst wants to create new policy whether it is Medicaid or health plans addressing ACEs
- Email mmitros@vitalysthealth.org for more information

New Business: Rebecca Liemkuehler

- Rebecca addressed helping and supporting this work and the action items it takes
 - asked for thoughts and ideas

Sarah Lindstrom Johnson suggested National Child Traumatic Stress Networknctsn.org/resources/creating-supporting-and-sustaining-trauma-informed-schools-system-framework/

Suggestion for child care programs to understand this work so that it is reaching all the way from PreK to

12th grade

Guest Speaker: Brad Snyder

- Educated group on trauma informed home learning environments

Next meeting is Thursday, September 2, 2020 from 4:00pm-5:30pm virtually over Zoom.

Rebecca closed meeting at 5:14pm