

Trauma Sensitive Schools Workgroup

October 7, 2020
4:00pm-5:30pm
Virtually over Zoom

Laura Wiggins opened meeting at 4:05pm

- Welcomed group
- Mindfulness Minute
- Introduced Guest Speakers

Guest Speakers: John Bowen and Laura Anderson

- Presentation on their book “Supportive Classrooms”
- Their book is an interactive workbook for teachers to implement trauma informed care into their classrooms
- https://www.amazon.com/Supportive-Classroom-Trauma-Sensitive-Compassionate-Environment/dp/1646040457/ref=sr_1_1?dchild=1&keywords=Supportive+Classroom&qid=1602466858&sr=8-1

New Business:

- ❑ Rebecca Liemkuehler and Angie Geren announced that the group is looking to nominate an innovative champion to nominate at the upcoming Annual Summit. More information will be going out to the group on nominations and process
- ❑ Rebecca Liemkuehler and Angie Geren announced that the Schools Workgroup will be having a panel workshop at the Annual Summit on integrating trauma informed practices in schools and are finalizing panelist
- ❑ Vincent Lopez from Maricopa County Public Health Department announced that their grant for trauma informed schools is open and Angie Geren will send out to the group
- ❑ Jill Stamm announced that the Neurosequential Model Of Caregiving training has started and they will have another one that starts in Spring

Next meeting is Wednesday, November 4, 2020 from 4:00pm-5:30pm virtually over Zoom.

Rebecca closed meeting at 5:20pm